NO. 40.

MIGHT AS WELL KNOW THE TRUTH

Says Hartford Republican Of Taft's Candidacy.

IS AGAINST ORGANIZED LABOR

"If Nominated, Mr. Taft Will Lose Kentucky by 40,- 000 Majority."

The Hartford Republican, in its issue of March 6, 1908, said:

Evidences are multiplying every day which show beyond a doubt, it seems to us, that Mr. Taft cannot be elected President on the Republican ticket.
* * * those who are determined to force this out, but we feel that we owe it to our party in Ohio county and the Fourth Congressional district. If those who are determined to point the candidacy of the Secretary of War upon the party, succeed, and defeat comes we are not going to suffer the smallest part of the responsibility placed at our door. If he is nominated, Mr.
Taft will lose Kentucky by 40,000 majority. His attitude toward the negro soldiers, and toward organized labor, will not only embarrass us in the present race, but will render doubtful many Kentucky Republican counties in the election of county officers next year.

In order that our readers may know the position which organized labor is taking toward the Taft candidacy we reproduce labor resolutions adopted by the Washington Central Labor Union, unanimously, and which explain the method to be followed in annulling labor sentiment against the Secretary of War:

Whereas, An election is to take place for delegates to both the Republican and Democratic conventions.

Whereas, Labor is opposed to William H. Taft, Secretary of War for the Presidency; be it

Resolved, That the President of the Central Labor Union appoint a committee of three to secure the written promise of candidates as delegates to the Republican and Democratic conventions that they will not vote for any candidate for the Presidency who is opposed to organized labor.

In another portion of its editorial columns, in the same issue (March 6, 1908), the Hartford Republican says:
"Senator Bradley correctly states the conditions when he says there would be no chance for the Republicans to carry Kentucky with Mr. Taft as their nominee."
"If Taft is the Republican nominee for President, the Republicans will have the fight of their lives to carry Ohio county for him. It is just as well to be plain about this matter. Whether the loss of Ohio county would have any effect on the contest or not, we all know what effect it would have on the county election next year."

Notice of Dissolution.

DOUBLE MARRIAGE

Of Brothers and Sisters—Romantic Union of Ohio-Davies Couple.

The Owensboro Messenger says: Rivalling in romance the stories told in novels, is the little history of the courtship and marriage of Ed and Charles Harrel, brothers, of Rockport, Ky., and Altha and Vela Iglehart, sisters, of Panther. The two couples were wedded on Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. B. F.
Jenkins, at his home on Lewis street.

About a year ago the two sisters visited friends at Seneca, Ohio county, near Rockport, and the two brothers met them. A friendship sprang up between the four and the flames soon kindled into love. Then came a year of cross-country drives from Rockport to Panther. Every Wednesday and Sunday night the two brothers drove to the home of the two sisters.

Together they wooed and won.

Then the idea of a double marriage was carried out, and all came to Owensboro together on Wednesday morning, leaving in the afternoon, brothers and sisters as well as brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law.

The two brothers are in the lumber business together, and have built homes alike, furnished alike, and side by side.

Every detail of the domestic lives that are to follow the double courtship and marriage has been planned to bear out the same condition.

Farmer Commits Suicide.

Rufus Parker, of McLean county, near Calhoun, ended his life Thursday afternoon by shooting himself with a double-barrel shotgun. He committed the deed at his home on the front porch, while his wife and daughter were away from home visiting his son-in-law who lived on the same farm, but who lived several hundred yards from the Parker home.

Parker placed the gun on the ground and while sitting on the porch caused the explosion of the cartridge by pushing the trigger of the gun back with a stick. The shot entered the body just above the abdomen, killing him instantly. The report of the gun was heard by his wife and several others. His wife ran to the house to find him lying on the porch dead, and his clothes on fire. She succeeded in extinguishing the flames before any one could give her assistance.

Parker was about 48 years of age, and was one of the most highly respected citizens of the Calhoun vicinity, and owned a very large farm about five miles from that place. He came from Webster county to Mc-Lean county about 10 months ago. He is survived by a wife and daughter.

Twenty-Six in one Family.

Canada, Ky., Sept. 25.—The record of 20 Democratic votes in one family as published in The Herald a few days ago, is broken by "Uncle" Ned Chapman, deceased, and his wife, Betty Chapman, who is still living.
They reared twelve sons, of whom eleven are alive.

The sons have fifteen boys over 21 years old. So "Aunt" Betty's sons and grandsons will cast twenty-six votes. All are loyal Democrats, and challenge the country to break this record.

EARNEST APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE

To Assist in Popular Government.

MOTTO: LET THE PEOPLE RULE

Contributions May be Left With Capt. Cox, at Ohio County Bank.

Editors Herald, Hartford, Ky., Dear Sirs:—There are no secrets in this Campaign. Strictly practicing what he preaches, Mr. Bryan would not win victory with tainted money paying the election expenses.

Not a dollar is to be accepted which requires any promise, either express or implied, other than for honest, impartial government.

Mr. Bryan will enter the White House absolutely free from entangling alliances, free to serve all classes of honest citizens alike, or he will not enter it at all.

Hence the course is plain. The campaign of Bryan and Kern must be conducted by the people.

The people must pay the necessary campaign expenses if they want public servants who will serve their interests.

Special interests and favored classes, having secured "swollen fortunes" by purchasing favors in the past with millions contributed to control elections, stand ready to give millions more for continued favors. But that class never gives a dollar unless it buys a pledge.

Mr. Bryan says, from March 4th, 1909, "Let the people rule."

This can come only if the people pay their own bills, and control their own elections.

You can serve the people of popular government through the columns of your paper. It reaches the fireside of the patriot who loves his country for his country's good; as distinguished from the greedy possessor of swollen fortunes who loves his country only for his country's goods.

GUARANTEE PLAN A GROWING ISSUE

Democratic Theory Being Exemplified.

IT BRINGS CASH ON DEMAND

Oklahoma Plan is Brought Home to Depositors in "Busted" Bank.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—The failure of the Shulte Bank in Hope, Ill., afforded to Governor Haskell, of Oklahoma, the opportunity of emphasizing to the people who sustain the losses the wisdom of the law in effect in Oklahoma, which guarantees absolute safety to bank depositors. After reading the story about the failure of the bank in Hope, Ill., Gov. Haskell forwarded to the Mayor of the city, who is an Independent in politics, the following letter:

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 17, 1908.

H. M. Froese, Mayor, Hope, Ill., Dear Sir:—Your community has my sympathy for recent failure of the Shulte Bank and the loss of depositors.

Had the Oklahoma Banking law been in force in Illinois the depositors could have been paid within twenty-four hours. If they had been willing to take time to come for their money, promptly.

We recommend our banking law for early future adoption and that you pay no attention to the statements about wildest banking, and use of our school fund to make a good showing.
There is no truth in any of those statements. The law carefully regulates the bank and protects the de-positors.

Sincerely yours,
C. N. HASKELL,
Governor of Oklahoma.

Governor Haskell also referred to the failure of the bank at Coalgate, Okla., the first financial institution in the State to fail under the operation of the guarantee law. The next day this sign appeared on the door of the bank.

"This bank is in the hands of the State Bank Commissioner. Please call and get your money. Depositors will be paid in full."

On the second day all depositors who made their appearance had been paid.

Notice to the Teachers of Ohio County Schools.

The Ohio County Teachers' Institute will be held in the Court House in Hartford beginning on 13th of October, (Tuesday) and ending on 17th October, 1908. Every teacher in the schools of the county is required by law to attend the entire session. The State Superintendent has instructed me to rigidly enforce the law. Dr.
John C. Willis will be the Instructor. The public money for the current year is $3.72. This increase is brought about by the revenue from the tax on dogs which adds to the fund $1,993.02. I am informed by Superintendent Crabb that the money will be ready for the teachers on the 1st pay-day which will be October 10, 1908.

Respectfully,

Mysterious Rain.

Glasgow, Ky., Sept. 24.—Much comment has been occasioned throughout this section by a mystifying rain which fell in Warren county a few days since. The rain which is termed a "soaking rain" fell on the farms of James Young, W. D. Duncan, J. C.

Read and Barker Duncan, and, it is claimed, thoroughly soaked the ground for something like a half mile square, and aside from these four farms not a drop of rain fell in that or adjoining counties.

The peculiar feature in connection is the fact that Warren county, along with the rest of the State, is experiencing one of the most severe drouths in many years, and why or how this rain fell on only four farms in the middle of the drouth-ridden district, is simply unexplainable.

The occurrence has created almost as much comment and interest as did the rain at Glasgow Junction a year ago, when the rain fell in one certain place for a week without a sign of a cloud and which was given almost a national publicity.

KENTUCKY GIRL,

Who, Along With Her Mother, is Well Known Here, Married in Connecticut.

The Louisville Courier-Journal of last Saturday contained the following special:

Stamford, Conn., Sept. 25.—When Miss Jennie L. Spalding, of Hartford, Ky., who is playing in the "Follies of 1908" company, finished her part on the program of the New York Theater Friday night, she hurried to her dressing-room, got quickly into a traveling gown and accompanied by two young women friends, ran out of the theater to a motor car that was chugging in seeming impatience at the curb in front of the showhouse. Miss Spalding and her friends were somewhat in a flutter, and at least one of the occupants of the car that awaited them "fluttered" in sympathy.

He was Lewis Putnam Strang, hero of many a motor car race, regarded as one of the most daring and skilled motorists of the world. He and Miss Spalding were to be married and the motor car was in waiting to whisk them to Stamford for the ceremony.

Strang was here Friday afternoon in company with his friend, John H.
Tyson, the young millionaire for whom he won the Briar Cliff trophy, the Savannah and the Lowell road races, and for whom he hopes to win the Vanderbilt Cup race.

They obtained a marriage license, made an appointment with Judge Martin J. Gray to be at the Hotel Carlton at 1 o'clock this morning to tie the knot and ordered a big wedding breakfast to celebrate the nuptials. Aside from the bride and bridegroom the party included Griswold Daniel and Fred Utoff, two well known and wealthy young New Yorkers, and the two women friends of Miss Spalding.
The knot was tied in the parlors of the hotel about 1:30 by Judge Gray, Mr. Tyson acting as Strang's best man.

Editorial Note.—The young lady mentioned is the oldest daughter of Mrs. Nannie Alexander Miller, formerly Mrs. Spalding of Louisville, the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wayland Alexander, of Hartford, and who is now a resident of Chicago. Mrs.
Strang was first married to Mr. Ed H. Lowe, a wealthy shirt manufacturer of New York City, but was divorced a short time ago and restored to her maiden name of Spalding.

BACKED OUT.

A later telegram from Stamford says:

A bride won by an auto race, changed her mind at the last moment last night and a romantic wedding to have been celebrated here is off for all time.

City Court Judge Gray waited at the Hotel Carlton here until after 2 o'clock this morning to marry Lewis Putnam Strang, the dare devil automobile racer, and Miss Jennie Spalding, an actress now playing at the New York theater. He went home at 2:15 without having performed the ceremony, because Miss Spalding, so Strang says, went back on her promise at the last moment.

Important Notice.

A Bryan and Kern Club s'd be formed in each voting precinct in Ohio county. The Committeeman of each precinct should see to it that a call is issued for that purpose at the earliest possible time. The Herald will gladly grant space in its columns for that purpose, free of charge. What precinct will be first?

Messrs. M. L. Davis, Sulphur Springs, and George W. Maddox, Westerfield, were among our callers yesterday.

JUST A MINUTE, "LEST WE FORGET"

Who is This Vociferous Individual?

IMPORTANT FACTS RECALLED

Which Have Forcible Bearing Upon the Present Political Campaign.

Who is this man who is swinging the big stick in Washington, raising a hullabaloo over the Standard Oil Company, raging against Haskell and otherwise overflowing with wrath and invective? The New York World has this character study of the vociferat-ing purist:

"The Theodore Roosevelt who bursts forth in virtuous denunciation of Senator Foraker and the Standard Oil Company is the same Theodore Roosevelt who summoned Edward H. Harriman to the White House shortly before the 1904 election and encouraged Harriman to raise a $200,000 campaign fund which could be used only to corrupt voters.

"He is the same Theodore Roosevelt who made George B. Cortelyou Chairman of the Republican National Committee in 1904, thus setting his chief corporation inquisitor to the task of collecting campaign tribute from the corporations subject to Federal investigation.

"He is the same Theodore Roosevelt whose 1904 campaign was financed in part by life insurance contributions filched from the policyholders.

"He is the same Theodore Roosevelt who made Eulhu Root, Thomas F. Ryan's attorney, Secretary of State in his Cabinet.

"He is the same Theodore Roosevelt who made J. Pierpont Morgan's partner, Robert Bacon, Assistant Secretary of State.

"He is the same Theodore Roosevelt who personally licensed the Steel Trust to acquire the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company regardless of the Sherman law.

"He is the same Theodore Roosevelt who commanded the reactionary corporation platform adopted by the Chicago Convention and gladly accepted James S. Sherman as the Republican candidate for Vice President.

"Mr. Roosevelt is greatly scandalized by Senator Foraker's unseemly relations with the Standard Oil Company; but what if Foraker had been a supporter of My Policies instead of an opponent of My Policies? Would the President have promptly repudiated him, or would the same mantle of Executive charity have been thrown over Joseph Benson Foraker that was once thrown over Paul Morton, after that gentleman had been accused of granting rebates?"

When you recall these facts his outbursts lose much of their force and become merely the transparent political dodges of a reckless partizan.

A Worthy Movement Revived.

Rockport, Ky., Sept. 24.—The Ladies' Aid Society met at the Baptist church on September 14, 1908, and reorganized with a small membership of seven, but we hope to gradually increase our number and with the united efforts of all, make our influence felt, not only by our church but by our town and community. With the help of God we feel that our feeble efforts in the past have been amply rewarded and we humbly solicit the prayers of each and every one who may become interested in our great work.

Our worthy and beloved pastor, Bro.
A. B. Gardner, is conducting a series of meetings at this place with his feeble church and may God in His infinite mercy see fit to bless, revive and reunite us in the holy bonds of Christian love in our prayer.

Big Temperance Victory.

Hardinsburg, Ky., Sept. 26.—Seventen out of twenty-one precincts in Breckenridge county give 1,350 majority in favor of the "drys." The other four precincts will bring it up to 1,- 500 in favor of the dries. This was a great victory for the temperance forces.
